The help build chapels, celebrate the sacraments and spread the Word in the most remote mission communities. Over 6,000 active missionaries travel to the far corners of the world where they build hospitals to care for the sick, educate the poor, teach the hungry to farm and house the homeless; they also work to help neglected and forgotten building a better future while growing vibrant Catholic communities of service and faith around the world. Brother Brian has served as a missionary in Japan and his current ministry is on Issues of Justice and Peace in Washington, D.C. Please welcome Br. Brian.
